

Carolyn J. Vondriska

Carolyn is proud to be serving the Ojai Valley as an Attorney at the law firm of Waite, Jacobs & Atkinson, assisting clients in the areas of estate planning, health care documents, and trust administration. Carolyn is a 1993 graduate of U.C. Davis School of Law, where she graduated in the top 5% of her class, earning a spot in the prestigious Order of the Coif national honor society. She clerked for United States District Judge Milton L. Schwartz in Sacramento, thereafter joining the litigation department of the international law firm of Morrison & Foerster LLP in San Francisco. She went on to become a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in Washington State for nine years before moving to Ojai to be near family.

Carolyn is the mother of three children. She is an active volunteer with the Ojai Valley Defense Fund, Ojai Boy Scout Troop 504, and our local schools.

Carolyn is part of a talented and dedicated team at Waite, Jacobs & Atkinson, which has been providing legal services to the Ojai Valley for more than 40 years. The team includes Law Office Administrator Megan Davis, who came to the firm in 2011 after a decade of teaching throughout the Ojai Valley, and Law Office Administrator Kate Kalanick, who joined the firm in 2017 with more than 10 years of administrative experience.

As a team, they look forward to helping the residents of the Ojai Valley and surrounding communities with their estate planning and trust administration needs.
